PRATT SAVED LIFE OF CHINESE BOY

Supt. Pratt of the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co. was instrumental last evening in saving the life of a Chinese boy. The boy, Ah Chong by name, and only seven years of age, jumped on the fender of an electric car, just as it was leaving the baseball park. The car was the first to start and was crowded to the guards. As the boy jumped on the fender his foot slipped and he fell over backward, his head striking the ground. Supt. Pratt jumped off and caught the boy's head in his hands, running alongside the car and holding the boy from the ground until the car could be stopped. It moved for a distance of nearly twenty yards and then everyone on the car expected to see the mangled form of the adventurous youngster from the rails. The boy did appear to be unconscious and Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, who was near by, telephoned for the patrol. Ah Chong was removed to the Queen's Hospital where he was found not to have a bruise upon his entire body. He was taken home by his brother.

"Freeer's Frivolities."

Mr. Freeer, who has been so successful in his diverting entertainment in Honolulu, leaves today to present his famous "Frivolities" in Hilo and Wailuku. Freeer will return to Honolulu and play again later when he is certain to repeat his former successes.

WHAT WAS HER ANSWER?

An American heiress was wooed by a foreign prince, who urgently besought her to become his wife. In order to test the sincerity of his love he asked: "Will you still marry me if I give away all my money for charity and become as poor as yourself?" The prince considered a while and then responded: "Yes, provided you will still marry me if I renounce my title and become a plain, republican person like yourself." Query: Did she agree to his proposition?—Smart Set.

COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETS AT EVENING

It has been decided that the County Committee elected at the recent Republican primaries will assemble in Progress hall at 7:30 o'clock next Monday evening. This time is fixed on account of the great inconvenience it would be to many of the delegates to attend in business hours, more especially as Monday is a busy day for shippers.

Clarence L. Crabbe, chairman of the Republican Central Committee, states that he is not a candidate for the chairmanship of the County Committee.
